

Living Eggs Incursion

All groups enjoyed having Living Eggs visit and some great creative expression arose from the experience. We sculpted chicks in play dough, drew them in detail whilst observing them, painted the chicks on the easel, pasted chicks, sang songs, read stories and discussed how they felt to touch. Always a highlight of the year.

Rosellas